

Happy New Year from Blissful Barn

As we get closer to the 2018 wedding season at Blissful Barn, we wanted to extend a New Year Special to all of the brides still looking for their beautiful wedding destination.

Starting today, 10 January 2018, book any remaining Friday or Sunday dates for 2018 and you will receive up to a 30% discount on the venue and all of your props for the wedding are free. Our Farm Tables can be rented at half price in this special.

Hurry and book today because we have limited dates available and this special is too good to run for ever.

We look forward to working with you!
